Personal Injury Claims

If you have been injured in an accident and wish to claim compensation, Graysons can help.

We specialise in securing compensation for injuries and expenses incurred as a direct result of your accident.

Our considerable experience and high success rate mean that you will have the best possible chance of winning your claim with Graysons on your side.

We offer free initial advice and will pursue your claim on a 'No Win - No Fee' basis.

We have teams specialising in claims arising from road accidents, accidents at work and accidents in public places, so you can be sure you will receive expert advice and representation from someone with detailed knowledge of your type of claim.

Our teams comprise members of the Law Society's specialist Personal Injury Panel, solicitors recognised as experts in their field.

Industrial Disease Compensation

Exposure to dust, chemicals, noise, vibration and fumes at work can cause suffering and even premature death. Employers in all industries have a duty of care to their employees and this is backed up by compliance legislation to ensure health and safety at work.

Graysons has built a reputation as one of the leading law firms in industrial disease claims across Yorkshire and Derbyshire. We handle all type of claims, ensuring that when work is the cause of illness or death, employers fulfil their legal obligations. Our specialist team have secured over £50 million in compensation for the victims of industrial disease.

Every individual for whom we act is offered free initial advice. Funding is available on a 'No Win - No Fee' basis or through union membership. We also offer home and hospital visits where appropriate.

Above all we provide a helpful and friendly service combining expertise with a sympathetic approach.

If you think you may have suffered an injury or disease due to your work it is best to contact us as soon as possible, as there are time limits placed on when you can make a claim.

Medical Negligence Claims

We all receive medical treatment at some point in our lives either from doctors, nurses, dentists or other workers in the Health Services. Unfortunately, on occasions the treatment may not be of the required standard and the patient can suffer pain and injury as a result.

If this happens, you do not need to suffer in silence. Contact Graysons solicitors for support and advice.

We have a specialist team who obtain compensation for victims of medical negligence. We are members of the Law Society's Medical Negligence Panel which means that we are recognised as experts in this field. Our expertise means that we are the only law firm in North Derbyshire, and one of just a few in South Yorkshire, who can offer Legal Aid Funding for advice about a claim.

In all cases we offer free initial advice. If Legal Aid is not available we are able to offer 'No Win - No Fee' funding in suitable cases.

Child Care

Graysons has an established reputation for providing specialist, high quality advice relating to children's issues.

Our specialist legal team has substantial experience of legal proceedings involving children and offers sensitive and effective representation in dealing with Social Services departments and other relevant agencies.

We represent parents, grandparents, foster parents, children and other relatives within South Yorkshire and North Derbyshire.

We offer a free initial appointment to all clients. In many cases, clients are eligible for assistance under the Legal Help Scheme and/or Public Funding (Legal Aid) and we are happy to help with the necessary forms.

Separation and Divorce

Separation from a spouse or partner can be a deeply traumatic process. It is normal to feel a wide range of different and complex emotions; yet, important practical decisions have to be made that will have significant implications for your long term future.

Property and finances may need to be divided. Choices may have to be made about who the children live with and arrangements for contact with the other parent.

At Graysons we offer a prompt and efficient service, with speedy access to jargon-free information, support and sympathetic advice to enable you to make informed decisions for yourself, your children and your family.

The areas we cover include:

- Divorce
- Financial disputes between unmarried couples
- Financial and Property settlements
- Child residence and Child care arrangements
- Maintenance
- Separation agreements
- Prenuptial agreements
- Court Injunctions

Wills, Estates and Trusts

There is only one way to make sure that the people you want to benefit on your death actually do so - and that is by making a Will.

A straightforward Will can be surprisingly affordable and can provide you with the peace of mind of knowing that those you care for will receive what you have worked so hard to acquire.

We can also provide advice on Inheritance Tax planning to minimise your estate's liability and ensure that your loved ones receive what they are entitled to.

Contact us for a free initial interview where we can advise you on the options available to you.

Elderly Client Services

An important part of our practice is the provision of support services to elderly clients and those who care for them.

We have a range of services designed to help you plan for the future. From a simple case of assisting an older client moving into a smaller property, to arranging a Power of Attorney for someone to take over responsibility for a loved one's affairs, we have the expertise to guide you.

We can also advise on the financial implications facing people moving into residential care.

If you or a loved one needs advice on any of these areas, contact us for a free initial consultation and we will be happy to assess your circumstances and advise you on the best course of action.

Conveyancing

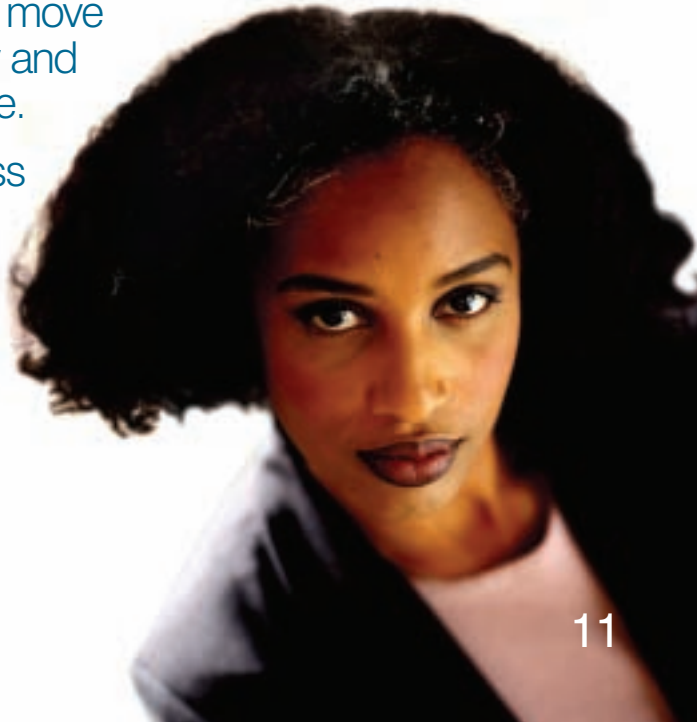

Whether you are buying or selling, Graysons offers a first class conveyancing service delivered by an experienced and friendly team.

What can be a relatively straightforward process is frequently complicated. This can be frustrating and stressful because it is often due to circumstances beyond your control.

Years of experience and literally tens of thousands of property transactions have taught us that what people really appreciate is being kept informed throughout, and we pride ourselves on being able to provide a personal, friendly service.

Our conveyancing team are backed up by the latest electronic conveyancing technology which assists us with making your move go ahead as quickly and smoothly as possible.
